

GOOD GOVERNANCE
CYCLES

OPEN EYES ECONOMY
ON TOUR

seminar

MAN – WORK:

High growth, low impact

April 10, 2018, 10.00 AM

Cracow University of Economics

27 Rakowicka Street, building G, room 13

No registration needed

Programme

9.30-10.00	Welcome coffee
10.00-10.20	Opening and welcome speech – prof. Jerzy Hausner, PhD, Faculty of Public Economy and Administration, Cracow University of Economics
10.20-10.50	Economic and Ecological Crises: Green New Deals and No-Growth Economies – prof. Robert Jessop, PhD, Lancaster University
10.50-11.10	The causes and potential consequences of a secular stagnation – prof. Andrzej Sławiński, PhD, Warsaw School of Economics
11.10-11.30	Theories of Economic Growth and Crisis: Alternative Perspectives – prof. Adrew Brown, PhD, Leeds University
11.30-11.50	European Union: New Institutional Framework for Economic Development – prof. Jerzy Wilkin, PhD, Polish Academy of Sciences
11.50-12.30	Discussion
12.30-13.00	Lunch break
13.00-13.20	Churning state dilemma of pension system design – how to respond to demographic and labor market challenges – Paweł Wojciechowski, PhD, Chief Economist of ZUS (Polish Social Insurance Institution)
13.20-13.40	China's One Belt-One Road Initiative: Infrastructural development and entrepreneurial cities – Ngai-Ling Ivin SUM, PhD, Lancaster University
13.40-14.00	On the scientific and expertise culture(s) of economics: substitutes or complements – Krzysztof Nowak-Posadzy, PhD, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
14.00-14.40	Discussion
14.40-15.00	Summary – prof. Jerzy Hausner, PhD, Faculty of Public Economy and Administration, Cracow University of Economics

ORGANIZER

CO-ORGANIZERS

PARTNERS

MAIN MEDIA PARTNER

POWERED BY

